The world is in crisis. and Britain is not helping. To mark 20 years since the fall of the Berlin Wall, we present this exhibition with the theme 'Britain's Rubbish Let's All Move to Berlin'. We will mount an invasion of Berlin showing works by over 100 international artists.

Artists include Bob & Roberta Smith, Cake & Neave, Darren Coffield, Franko B, Gavin Turk, Gideon Cube-Sherman, Gilbert & George, Harry Pye, Louise Camrass, Laura Oldfield Ford, Mark Hammond, Mark McGowan, Stephen Gill, Simon Ould and many others. Many of these artists are well versed in satirising our nation and often play an important role in highlighting why Britain is Shit. They include three Turner Prize nominees and one Turner Prize winner.

with a huge after show party ASPHALT HANDBAG!

The opening event will conclude with a huge party of live music, performance, DJs, VJs and large-scale sculpture at Yorckstrasse 24, a vast warehouse-style venue not far from the gallery. The all-night party will feature some of the best known club acts in Berlin today and some live acts brought over from Britain including Private Lives, and more acts To Be Announced.
